1. Group 1 and/or Group 2 may be played on Orff instruments, flutes, or recorders.— Group 1 - Alto range, Group 2 - Bass range, Group 1 & 2 together - Soprano range.
2. A quartet on the chorale might be a better balance for young voices than a full choir of adult voices.
3. The first time the chorale is sung could be in unison.
4. The numbers (1, 2, 3) at the canon indicate where the second entry (sung or played by instruments) comes each of the three times the canon is sung. The canon will be at two measures (1), one measure (2), and then at the half measure (3).
5. The following rhythmic pattern may be used on tambourine, drums, finger cymbals, or sticks. Other can be improvised.

6. Various ostinato patterns on the Orff instruments would also be appropriate accompaniment for the 'Hosanna' sections.
