

DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above ye heavenly hosts,
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen

The Doxology is sung in most churches every Sunday.

Is it sung in your church? _____ At what point in the service? _____

The words are adapted from Psalm 148.

Which verses of the Psalm speak of:

all creatures here below _____

ye heavenly hosts _____

THESE TWO SINGING GRACES ARE SUNG TO THE SAME TUNE

Be present at our table, Lord
Be here and everywhere adored;
Thy children bless, and grant that we
May live in fellowship with Thee. Amen

For all the glories of Thy Way,
For Thy protection night and day,
For roof and warmth, and bed and board,
For friends and home, we thank Thee, Lord. Amen

Grace: "A short prayer, in which a blessing is asked, or thanks rendered at a meal."
Webster's dictionary.

There are many ways of saying grace.

The Roman Catholic crosses himself
Others bow the head, and say grace silently
Sometimes the father or mother says grace for the family
Sometimes the members of the family take turns
Sometimes the whole family sings a grace
Sometimes they join hands around the table, and sing a grace

What is the custom in your family?

Can you write an original Grace to this same tune? Try it.
It would be easier if the whole family helped.

Amen