

What a Savior
Pamela Vandewalker

A Reader's Theatre

OBJECTIVE: Younger and older students will gain knowledge of God and increase skills in diction, ensemble, poise, projection, and expression.

SUPPLIES: Enough copies for each of your students of the reading below.

Experiment by using different dynamics and tempos in this reading. It may be memorized or read.

READER 1: Hallelujah! What a Savior!

READER 2: You are so great - of that fact there is no debate!

READER 3: A look at your name offers a glimpse of your immense fame.

READER 4: Father - you are able -

READER 5: Secure and stable.

READER 6: You are the Way;

READER 7: My stay and

READER 8: The Ancient of Days.

READER 1: God - you are the True Light;

ALL: our Strength and Might.

READER 2: You are the Source;

READER 3: and Love, of course.

READER 4: You're Redeemer,

READER 5 & 6: Provider,

READER 6: and gracious Savior!

READER 7: You are good and wise

READER 8 & 2: and a God who hears our cries.

READER 1: You are my all and all;

READER 3: You always hear me call.

READER 4: Jesus - you are peace

READER 5: And your mercies never cease.

READER 6: You are the Door

READER 7, 3, & 1: And so much more!

READER 2, 4, & 6: You are God!

ALL: Hallelujah! What a Savior!